NOTICE.

The 26th October 1888.

Pursuit of game in Reserved Forests and areas under special fire prottecion.

The rules framed under section 21 (h) and Rule 21 section 26 of the Madras Forest Act for the pursuit of game in Reserved Forests and areas under special fire protection respectively are published below for the information of the public.

RULES.

Rules under Section 21 (h) of the Madras Forest Act (Act V of 1882) for regulating the pursuit of game in Reserved Forests.

1. Any person who may desire to hunt, shoot or fish within the limits of any or all the reserved forests of any district shall be bound to take out a license at the office of the Collector of the District.

2. The payment to be made for such license shall be Rs. 5 and the said license shall not be transferable. It will be available only for the currency of the calendar year to which it relates, whether it be taken out at the commencement of, or during the currency of the year.

3. The Collector may, by Notification in the District Gazette, declare that any reserved forest shall be closed annually against hunting, shooting or fishing for any period between the 1st February and 1st August, and may modify or cancel such notification, and after the publication of such notification no license taken out under Rule 1 will be held to give authority to hunt, shoot or fish in such reserved forest during the close season laid down in such notification. Provided that it shall be at the discretion of the Collector, in the interests of any reserved forest, to declare it closed against all hunting, shooting or fishing for the whole of any particular year.

4. The poisoning or dynamiting of water or the setting of traps or snares for game in any reserved forest is absolutely forbidden. The catching of fish by the damming or baling of water is not prohibited.

N. B.—No elephant may be shot at (except in bonâ fide self defence) by virtue of any license issued by a Collector under these rules. Any person wishing to shoot an elephant must apply to the Revenue Secretary to Government for permission to do so.

II.

Rules under Rule 21, Section 26, of the Madras Forest Act (Act V of 1882) for regulating the pursuit of game in fuel and fodder reserves, grazing grounds and areas under special fire protection.

Any person who may desire to hunt, shoot or fish within the limits of any land notified as a fuel and fodder reserve, grazing ground or area under special fire protection shall be bound to take out a license at the office of the Collector of the District.

2. No payment will be required for such license, but it will not be transferable. It will be available only for the currency of the calendar year to which it relates, whether it be taken out at the commencement of, or during the currency of the year.

3. The Collector may, by notification in the District Gazette, declare that any particular fuel and fodder reserve, grazing ground or area under special fire protection shall be closed annually or in any year against hunting, shooting and fishing for any period between the 1st February and the 1st August and may modify or cancel such notification, and after the publication of such notification, no license taken out under Rule 1 will be held to give authority to hunt, shoot or fish in such fuel and fodder reserve, grazing ground or area under special fire protection during the close season laid down in such notification.

4. The poisoning or dynamiting of water or the setting of traps or snares for game in any fuel and fodder reserve, grazing ground or area under special fire protection is absolutely forbidden. The catching of fish by the damming or baling of water is not prohibited.

N. B.—No elephant may be shot at (except in bonâ fide self defence) by virtue of any license issued by a Collector under these rules. Any person wishing to shoot an elephant must apply to the Revenue Secretary to Government for permission to do so.
